TRANSFER SEAMLESSLY

Students who have completed 56 credits at another higher-education institution can transfer to earn one of two bachelor's degrees:

B.S. in Health Systems Management

Health-care institutions in the greater Washington, D.C., region are looking for a highly educated workforce that can manage change in a turbulent environment. The Shady Grove campus' close proximity to multiple hospitals and health-care facilities make it an ideal location for both internship and job prospects.

This program is offered in a 10-week-per-semester format so you can earn your degree quickly and get right to work in this high-demand field. This program is offered through a combination of in-person classes on Saturdays and online courses.

B.S. in Simulation and Game Design

More than 100 game-development companies and agencies call the Baltimore-Washington region home. Gain the experience needed to launch a career in an industry where the need for skilled workers is high.

You can specialize in technical art or coding and development in this program. Through dual capstone seminars, you will work closely with professionals to test and build games and simulations, and then graduate with a portfolio of projects to showcase your abilities. This program is offered in day and online formats.

Transfer in three steps:

1. Complete the coursework to meet the minimum admission requirements (for the Simulation and Game Design program: 56 credits or a corresponding associate degree, and the prerequisite courses; for the Health Systems Management program: 56 credits or more and an associate degree). Both degrees require a cumulative 2.0 GPA.
2. Apply to UB using the online application at ubalt.edu/apply. Choose your intended degree program and the Shady Grove location.
3. Submit official transcripts from all previous (or current) institutions. Documents can be sent electronically to documents@ubalt.edu or mailed to the UB Office of Admission, Academic Center, Room 117, 1420 N. Charles St., Baltimore, MD 21201.

Make a Bee Line toward your degree.

Montgomery College students should enroll in the Bee Line program, which guarantees admission and early access to priority advising and student services. You must complete at least 15 credits and have a 2.0 cumulative GPA to qualify. Learn more at ubalt.edu/beeline.

We try to prepare students to start working right after graduation in our Simulation and Game Design program at the Universities at Shady Grove. ... We include skill-building, networking and field trips, so it's more than going to class and going home."

ADVANCE YOUR CAREER

Whether you're looking to advance in your career or start a new one, make your next step enrolling in one of UB's six graduate programs at the Universities at Shady Grove.

Integrated Design (M.A.)

Gain the skills and develop the portfolio you need to make your mark as an editor or designer. With a convenient weekend format, you can fit classes around your work schedule.

Forensic Science—Cyber Investigations (M.S.)

In just 12 months, you can graduate prepared to meet the increasing demand for cyber intelligence professionals. Evening courses offer practical, hands-on experience and access to brand-new digital computer labs.

Health Systems Management (M.S.)

This 10-week program, held Saturdays and online, can help you become a highly effective administrator in a health-related environment.

Master of Public Administration (M.P.A.)

This customizable program is offered through a combination of weekend and online courses and invites students to choose their specialization with options including health-care policy, negotiations and conflict management, global affairs and human security, and more.

Doctor of Public Administration (D.P.A.)

Work toward your degree in 15-week semesters offered over six weekends and online. Graduates of this program will be prepared to teach at the university level or join one of numerous government agencies, nonprofit organizations and third-sector organizations in the area.

Graduate Certificate in Government Financial Management

Fine-tune your financial management skillset while preparing to earn your next-level certificate during convenient evening and online classes. This 12-credit certificate prepares you for the Certified Government Financial Manager and Certified Defense Financial Manager examinations and fulfills some of the accounting requirements to sit for the CPA examination.

“I chose Health Systems Management because I was looking for a program in the health-care field. My mom’s health wasn’t great and I grew to understand a passion for nursing and caring for people. I felt making policy changes needed to come from the management level. The program covers policy and planning, and gives me a lot of perspectives on how health care works as a whole. Because I’ll have all those experiences, that will make me more marketable.”
