Children Achieving Maximum Potential is looking for an Autism Therapist

Work with children with Autism Spectrum Disorders in their homes and communities providing one-to-one Applied Behavior Analysis and other evidence-based therapies. Help children improve communication, behaviors, social skills, leisure skills, life skills, etc. with an emphasis on improving independence. Training provided. Some experience working with children, individuals with autism or other related disabilities preferred. Strong interest in learning about working with children with autism required.

Part Time
$13.00– $14.50/Hour
10–25 Hour/Week

Education, Public Health, Health Care Administration, and Psychology Majors encouraged to apply today!

To apply, please send your resume to usgcareerservices@umd.edu or call 301–738–6338