

Ad Astra (Recruiting Department)
Freelance Interpreter
Career Connector Job ID #11710

Description

At Ad Astra, we don't just think outside of the box ... we speak, sign, and write there too. We help companies connect with consumers through linguistic support in over 250 spoken and signed languages. We are a woman-owned small business with a long history of providing unparalleled language services to clients throughout the nation and globe.

We are seeking talented bilingual individuals to work as Freelance Interpreters on an as-needed basis for our Medical, Legal, and Governmental clients. As a Freelance Interpreter with our agency you can accept and deny assignments based on your schedule, set your own rates and terms, and work for other agencies.

This job would be a great fit for you if you want to:

- Travel around the LOCATION area
- Continue to utilize your language skills
- Refine your interpretation skills
- Earn an extra income
- Be a voice for your community!

This job requires you to be:

- Fully fluent in English and another language
- Interpret oral conversations
- At least 18 years old
- Authorized to work in the US
- Able to pass a drug screening and background check
- Willing to submit immunization records including TB, Flu, MMR, and others

If you are new to interpreting or a seasoned interpreter, we have contracts for you. We offer a free orientation session for individuals who are new to the interpreting field and a wide variety of advanced trainings for all.
