

Art of Problem Solving Academy
Part-Time Language Arts Teacher
Career Connector Job ID #11660

Teach Language Arts to motivated students at AoPS Academy!

AoPS Academy is an after-school academic math and language arts training academy for high-performing students. AoPS Academy is a part of Art of Problem Solving (aops.com), a company developing educational opportunities for many of the most eager students in the world through an online school, book series, and on-ground learning centers. Art of Problem Solving is on the forefront of advanced math education, and we value giving our students the best education possible.

As a teacher at our campus in Gaithersburg, MD you will be working with some of the most talented students in the area in a small classroom setting. We allow our teachers to focus on what they do best: teaching! You can concentrate on exploring interesting language arts concepts in depth and work with incredibly talented students.

Job Duties:

Teach in dynamic, participation-oriented classes that focus on instruction and developing skills, not on rote memorization.

Work in small classes (average size 12) with top performing elementary, middle, and high school students who are passionate about language arts and motivated to succeed.

Set your own schedule. Classes meet once per week, so you can work a few evenings or on the weekend at times that are convenient for you.

Work in a flexible, family-friendly company with a strong sense of mission.

Requirements:

Must have a solid background in English and language arts.

A bachelor's degree in a humanities field is required, ideally related to language arts. A master's degree or higher is preferred.

Teaching experience, particularly with advanced students, is a big plus. This role requires work with enthusiastic, high-performing students.

To Apply:

Look to Career Connector and search Job ID #11660.

Please include a cover letter and resume with your application. In your cover letter, please tell us about your teaching experience and explain why you feel you would be a good fit for this position

Location: Gaithersburg, Maryland United States

Desired Major(s): Communications, Education, Education/Elementary Education/Special Education, Education/Education Curriculum and Instruction Grades 1-5 (M.E.d.),

Education/Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (M.Ed.), Library Science (MLS)

Desired Class Level(s) : Alumnus, Graduate Student

Work Authorization : US Citizen or US National