

Burness Community Internship

Burness, a social justice communications firm located in Bethesda, MD, is seeking an intern who is interested in social justice communications.

We are a team of communicators, media and policy experts, digital strategists, designers, writers, producers, all working towards a common goal: promoting ideas that inspire and drive social change worldwide. Since our founding more than 30 years ago, we've worked with more than 600 nonprofits in the US and around the world.

This is a virtual internship opportunity.

Requirements

- Interest in social justice communications, journalism, design and data visualization, psychology, finance, public health non-profit management or advocacy, and other related fields.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills
- Solid understanding of social media
- Proficient with Microsoft Excel and other Microsoft Office applications
- Excellent research skills

Benefits

- Mentoring, Learning, and training opportunities with skilled communication professionals
- Opportunity to participate in company meetings and team building activities
- Flexible schedule
- Paid internship $15/hr.
-

To Apply: Please send resume, cover letter, and writing samples to Lbigelow@burness.com no later than April 19, 2021. The internship will begin on June 7, 2021.