Late Summer/Fall K-12 Tutors Needed in Rockville, $25+ph

Description

Part-time LATE SUMMER/FALL K-12 TUTORS needed for all subjects and age-levels in (and around) the ROCKVILLE area. Multiple tutoring locations are available, so no long commutes will ever be required.

As the new school year begins, we are looking for friendly, confident tutors to assist with homework support and all-round academic tutoring for the late summer through fall months. No prior tutoring experience is necessary. All you'll need is confidence in your subject, good communication skills, and an organized, can-do attitude.

You will be able to personally select which local students you would like to work with, to ensure a good match. Additionally, you will be able to set your own hours and your own weekly tutoring schedules. It is our aim to work with tutors who can tutor part-time for roughly 2-10 hours a week.

Tutoring sessions are conducted in a 1:1 format to ensure the student gets personal attention often lacking in a school setting. Sessions always take place at a neutral location, such as a library, quiet coffee shop, or in a meeting room on campus.

No long commutes are ever required and if the tutoring location is close, possessing a car is not necessary.

Location: Rockville, Maryland United States

Work Authorization: US Citizen or US National, Permanent Resident, Student F-1 Visa, H-1 Visa, Refugee, None

Salary Level: $25-$55/hour

Approximate Hours Per Week: 2-10 hours per week, depending on availability

Qualifications

No specific qualifications are required for you to tutor K-12 students. There are some personality requirements that make for a successful tutor. Good tutors are good communicators, patient, open and friendly, and organized. Last but not least, you must be highly confident in your K-12 subject(s).
