

US Department of Transportation, Federal Highway Administration
U.S. Department of Transportation Summer 2020 Transportation Internship Program for Diverse Groups (STIPDG) (paid)
Career Connector Job ID #10302

Internship Period: June - August, 2020

The STIPDG accepts students from any and all academic majors.

The Summer Transportation Internship Program for Diverse Groups (STIPDG) provides a unique opportunity to gain valuable professional experience and skills that will complement your academic pursuits. This hands-on program is designed to mentor and cultivate tomorrow's leaders, strengthen their understanding of the transportation industry and prepare them for future public service opportunities.

The STIPDG is a paid internship program open to all qualified candidates without regard to their race, gender, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, age, physical or mental disability, veteran status, or any other characteristic prohibited by state or local law.

(A) THE STIPDG PROGRAM OBJECTIVE

The U.S. Department of Transportation (U.S. DOT), Federal Highway Administration's (FHWA) Office of Human Resources will be accepting applications for the 2020 STIPDG Internship Program in early October 2019. The objective of the STIPDG is to provide college/university students with hands-on experience and on-the-job training while working on current transportation-related topics and issues. The STIPDG is open to all qualified applicants but is designed to provide qualified women, persons with disabilities, and members of diverse groups with summer opportunities in transportation where these groups have been under-represented.

Please refer to the information below for the "STIPDG Eligibility Requirements" and the "How to Apply for the STIPDG/Application Requirements."

(B) THE STIPDG ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants must be U.S. Citizens.

Applicants must be currently enrolled in degree-granting programs of study at accredited U.S. institutions of higher education recognized by the U.S. Department of Education (visit <https://ope.ed.gov/accreditation/search.aspx> to verify your school and/or program of study).

Undergraduate applicants must be juniors or seniors for the upcoming Fall Semester.

Undergraduate applicants from Junior, Tribal, or Community Colleges must have completed their first year.

Graduate applicants must be enrolled in the upcoming Fall Semester.

Applicants who are scheduled to graduate during the Spring or Summer Semesters of this academic year are not eligible for consideration for the STIPDG unless: (1) they have been accepted for graduate school enrollment; (2) they have been accepted for enrollment at an institution of higher education; or (3) their acceptance is pending. In all instances, the applicant must submit with their completed application, all required documentation (with the school's logo) reflecting their status. There will be no exceptions.

Former STIPDG interns may apply but will not necessarily receive preferential consideration. Applicants will be evaluated based on the "completeness" of the application and the Required Documents listed below. Priority will be given to those with GPA's of 3.0 or better (for the Major and/or Cumulative).

Applicants must be available and able to participate through the duration of the 10-week program.

Applicants must submit a completed application, to the webpage listed above, no later than February 1, 2020.
