The Performance Review & Development (PRD) Cycle (April 2018 through March 2019) is quickly approaching. Supervisors are encouraged to begin preparing to conduct final PRD evaluations.

The Office of Human Resources (OHR) will be hosting a Performance Review and Development (PRD) training on Friday, March 08, 2019. New supervisors and employees are required to attend PRD training and other supervisory modules such as the Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), Managing Time and Attendance, The Disciplinary Process, and the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) before participating in the PRD process. All other employees are strongly encouraged to attend this training session.
